DETAILED ACTIONDouble Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 2-6 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims of copending Application No. 10/055,562. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the structural limitations set forth in the claims 2-6 of the instant application are also claimed in the copending application, e.g. one or more obturator members; substantially rigid structural members; an adjustable placer; and a stopper member.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 2-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Melker 5628305.

5. Melker teaches a resuscitator having a manually operated cylindrical bellows having a longitudinal dimension, the resuscitator comprising: operation means for manually adjusting the longitudinal dimension to effect a preset airflow output volume independent of level of external pressure placement on the bellows (col. 6, lines 25-29); wherein output pressure of the resuscitator increase as the bellows is deflated uniformly along the longitudinally direction (output pressure increases as the volume of the bellows decreases); wherein the operation means comprises: inflow obturator; outflow obturator; structural framework; adjusting means for adjusting; and wherein the operation of the bellows ends at a predetermined pressure (when pressure is not enough to over come spring tension provided by spring 8).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Melker.

8. Melker teaches the resuscitator of claim 5. It should be noted that Melker fails to teach a regulator means for blocking air flow. However, Melker does teach that it is known to provide means for regulating pressure (col. 2, lines 6-15). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to include regulator means with the device of Melker in the event that too much air or gas is being presented to the lungs.
